National Red Setter Field Trial Winners

Here are your trial results as judged by Woody Hutto and Howard Parker on October 16 and 17th at the James A. Reed Wildlife area, Lee's Summit Mo.

We have a new Champion "County Clare's Shandy" owned by Ernie Lewis and handled by Stan Head. "Shandy" 573198 was whelped 7/5/61 by Ch. Mr. O'Leary out of Windyridge Tammy which certainly is a proven combination! Mr. Lewis as you know is the proud owner of another of our champions "Mighty Fawn" who has been busy at home with eight pups whelped October 11th (6 males and 2 females). Stan also handled her into the championship spot and flew back and forth to Philadelphia to select a Valli Hi dog of Dave Hasinger's for her mating. Congratulations and we'll see you in the spring at Upper Sandusky, APRIL (9th & 10th)!

Runner-up in the Championship stake was Tim's Baby Bean 725086 a bitch owned by Bob Harrison and handled by Jim Barnes. She is by Candy Tim O'Day out of Giner of Spedaleale.

Open Puppy winners were

1st--Peet's Contention-736126, bitch, by Jimmy K--Snet's Blip
Owner David S. Peet, handler E. L. Schnettler.

2nd--D Mar's Whirling Rebel-727159, dog, by Taylor's Whirlaway Pat
D Mar's Dixie. Owner & handler Dwight Haddock.

3rd--Saturday Night Jim--742232, dog, by Jimmy K--Schnet's Tara Owner & handler, E. L. Schnettler.

Amateur Shootin dog winners:

1st--Shady Crest Shawn--568867, dog, by Ike Jack Kendrick-Willow Winds
Kate. Owner handled by Dee L. Johnson.

2nd--Tim's Baby Bean (info. listed pg. 1)

3rd--Windyridge Tammy--580739, bitch, by Ike Jack Kendrick--Van's
Cindy. Owner handled by F. C. Bean

Open Derby Winners were:

1st--Vanita's Wild Gael--724188, bitch, by Ch. Mr. O'Leary-Tara
O'Shadycrest. Owners Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Van Wye, handler Jim Barnes

2nd--Miller's Lad O'Lil--dog, by Moffat's Apache Bill--Miller's Tiger
Lily. F. C. Bean handler and I guess owner now? if he isn't Dr.
Paul Miller.

3rd--Shannon of Redwood--728977, dog, by Ch. Mr. O'Leary--Tara O'Shady-crest. Owner handled by Stanley Smith.

Our thanks to Dr. Van Wye and his wife, Anita, for their fine job of taking care of everything and all of the wonderful people of the Santa Caligon club who aided them. We were sorry not to make the trip but glad to hear everyone supported the event so well!

Weather was warm, cover was high which didn't help the poor dogs make the greatest showing I understand but 5 puppies, 15 shooting dogs, 9 derbies and 16 in championship is a good trial!

Gatherings of other trial winners include Windyridge Tammy, Marilyn and Cliff's consistant winner who once again captured 1st in the Open All Age and 3rd in the Open Shooting Dog stakes at the I.S. C. of Ohio event. Mr. O'Leary placed 2nd to his kennel mate this trip but then he sleeps outside at the Bean's so probably feels 2nd. Cliff was noticing a definite improvement in the performance of the dogs enetered-- 6 well broken!

Irish Setter Club of Western New York had a trial at West Brockport
Nov. 7th open to Irish only under AKC rules. Faunt Ekey, vice-pres., of club was chairman and Helen Ekey, field secretary of the event.
We'll have to give you the winners in December issue. Howard Hawkins of Rochester and John Reindl of Morton Grove, Ill., were to judge..

Final tabulations of points for dog of the year, Associated Bird Dog Clubs of Ohio listed Mr. O'Leary (Bean) 76; Schnet's Little Red (Sch-nettler) 40; Windyridge Tammy (Bean) 4; Turkey Talk Red (Flythe) 15; Windyridge Nack (Bean) 3 and D. C. Streak's Herbst-Versprechen ????
(Bean) 3 !!!!!!!!!!!!! ?????????? !!!!!!!!!!!!! (Shouldn't even list it!)
